TOPIC 1

WE'RE IMPLEMENTING MEASURE R AND 30/10 HAS BEEN REBRANDED IN WASHINGTON DC AS AMERICA FAST FORWARD. ARE WE THERE YET? (9:05 AM)

How can we sustain the Measure R momentum? If the federal transportation bill gets bogged down in politics, can public-private partnerships play a role in accelerating LA's transportation projects? What are the next steps?

BETTINA POIRIER

Staff Director and Chief Counsel, US Senate Environment and Public Works Committee

JAIME DE LA VEGA

Incoming General Manager, City of LA Department of Transportation

BORJA LEON

TOPIC 2

WHEN THE MEASURE R TRANSIT PROGRAM IS BUILT, LA COUNTY WILL HAVE A WORLD-CLASS SYSTEM. BUT WHERE WILL WE GET THE MONEY TO OPERATE IT? (10:00 AM)

Transit agencies around the country are cutting service due to the bad economy. How do we ensure there will be enough money to operate LA's expanded transit system and provide high-quality service — while keeping fares low?

MICHAEL TURNER

Government Relations Director, State Affairs, LA Metro

JOHN FAIRBANK

Founding Partner of Fairbank, Maslin, Maullin, Metz & Associates

GRAHAM BROWNSTEIN

State Policy Director, TransForm

SUNYOUNG YANG

Lead Organizer, Bus Riders Union

JOSH SHAW

TOPIC 3IF CAPITAL AND OPERATING FUNDING ARE TWO LEGS OF THE STOOL, TRANSIT-ORIENTED DEVELOPMENT (TOD) IS THE THIRD LEG. WHO WILL MAKE IT HAPPEN? (11:00 AM)

TOD is key to ensuring high ridership, reducing driving and GHG emissions, and reducing transportation costs for residents — and it is also an important economic development strategy. How do we capture the value of the Measure R transit investment, and ensure that it results in community investment and other TOD benefits as well?

HASAN IKHRATA

Executive Director, Southern California Association of Governments

DR. RICHARD JACKSON

Professor and Chair, Environmental Health Services, UCLA

JESSICA MEANEY

California Policy Manager, Safe Routes to School National Partnership

ANN SEWILL

Executive Director, West LA Community Development Corporation

LUNCH (12:00 noon)LUNCH KEYNOTE (12:30 PM)

The Five Most Important Lessons About Transit And TOD

GB ARRINGTON

Vice President and Principal Practice Leader of PB PlaceMaking

TOPIC 4DREAMING BIGGER — MAKING THE MOST OF A ONCE-IN-A-GENERATION OPPORTUNITY (12:50 PM)

A Move LA transportation convening very much like this one helped launch Measure R in 2008. Now we need to ensure the transit investment leads to careers for community members, economic development and reinvestment in communities, and bike and pedestrian improvements. Is it time to start thinking about Measure R 2?

DR. ELAINE CHANG
